

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Entertained Society.
The Rev. and Mrs. T. G. Meredith were host and hostess yesterday to the Ladies' Aid society of the Highland avenue Methodist Episcopal church at their home in Barnestown. A chicken pie dinner was served with covers laid for fifteen.

With Mrs. Wick.
The Willing Workers class of the Central Christian church met last evening with Mrs. W. E. Wick at her home on Bellview avenue. During the evening an enjoyable program was given by Miss Perry and refreshments were served. There were 36 present, including husbands of the members of the class.

Returned from Celebration.
Mrs. Carl Test has returned from the celebration which she attended at the home of her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. J. Barry, who was held at her home on West 10th street. Mrs. Test and her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Wick, were present at the celebration. Mrs. Test and her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Wick, were present at the celebration.

To Have Concert.
A concert will be given by the South and Methodist Episcopal church will be held this evening at the church.

Jacob Watkins, father of Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, continues quite ill at the home of Mrs. Hutchinson on Morgan town avenue.

LOTS OF SKIRT AND LITTLE COAT

By BETTY BROWN.
The plaids we once confined to sport clothes have broken over the traces and now appear serenely promenading in street costumes as separate sports with tight, plain little coats of contrasting color and material as companions. Here is pictured a clever design in the favorite black and white plaid that looks like a real estate agent's plot of the city. The coat is collarless—for purposes of wool salvage.

Had Pleading Recital.
The pupils in music of Miss Eleanor Blanche Barnes gave a delightful recital last evening at the home of Mrs. A. Klaw on Pierpont avenue. Among those who participated on the program were Misses Anne Ollker, Helen Boggs, Meredith Kline, Lillian Morris, Lucile Hall, Ruth Friedman, Mary Rogers, Ruth Eddy, Pauline Bucy, Helen Robb, Beatrice Osgood, Virginia Osgood, Ruth Eliason, Isabel Klaw, Esther Funt. A feature of the evening was a reading, "The Bear Story" by James Whitcomb Riley, which was read by Jay Pierce. A number of the pupils of the pupils were present at the recital.

Had Colonial Tea.
A Colonial tea was given last evening by the Ladies of the Modern Macabees at the home of Mrs. Jack Haught at the home of Mrs. Jack Haught as hostesses. The guests numbering twenty were attired in colonial costumes. Refreshments were served during the evening.

Program A Success.
The Lenten entertainment given last evening at Fairmont Farms by a number of pupils of the High school was an enjoyable affair and was largely attended.

Ill in Baltimore.

Little Miss Mary Clark, the winsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Clark, is ill with typhoid fever in Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore. Miss Mary accompanied her grandmother, Mrs. John A. Clark to Philadelphia a week ago where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenna Clark. Miss Mary was taken ill there and removed to Baltimore. Her parents left here several days ago and are with her at this time. A message received here today stated that she was quite ill, but was doing very well at this time.

Cleaver-Toothman.
Harry J. Cleaver and Miss Anna Toothman were united in marriage at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. W. J. Eddy, pastor of the First Baptist church at seven o'clock last evening. They will reside on Cleveland avenue.

The body of the infant child of Lutzio Iovacina, whose death occurred yesterday at Kingmont will be brought here at ten o'clock tomorrow and will be taken to the Italian Catholic church following which interment will be made in Holy Cross cemetery by Undertaker R. L. Cunningham.

Dinner Tonight.
Covers will be laid for a large number of men and women at the Missionary birthday dinner to be served by the Missionary society of the First Baptist church at the church this evening at 6:30 o'clock. Twelve tables each representing a month of the year will be arranged and an attractive menu will be served.
